

LAD OUT OF NAVY, MOTHER IS SAVED

Woman Seriously Ill Is Revived by News of Son's Release

MIDS MANY SOLDIERS

Congressman Howard to Be Here Tuesday; Has Handled
2,500 Service Cases

"God bless you, congressman! I am sending 40 miles to thank you for what you have done for me and my wife at home."

L. B. Gordon, a white-haired farrier of White Oak, seized the hand of Congressman E. B. Howard at Miami Thursday and refused to release it until he had finished pouring into his ears his expressions of a telegram sent him by the congressman announcing the release of his son from service.

At White Oak a woman who has been agonizing ill for several months because of a mother's anxiety over the welfare of her son has been soothed by news which has predicted her son's recovery.

Frank M. Smith's transport is bringing

Frank Gordon, the 28-year-old son to the home of his youth where he will receive more than the welcome of the prodigal son. A father, mother and son will participate soon in a reunion that will probably be unbroken as long as life lasts.

Frank was in Texas about nine months ago when he yielded to the call of the great sea life and enlisted in the navy, being shipped immediately to the Philippines. The sea when it reached White Oak was more than the fragile mother could stand and from that time on she has constantly labored in health.

An appeal was made less than a month ago to Congressman Howard that the happy news of the lad's discharge was sent to his parents about a week ago.

Applications have been received recently by Congressman Howard and five soldiers seeking vocational education and training. A telegram was received from the department that the case of John Johnson, a Tulsa soldier and former Kendall student, would receive immediate attention.

A telegram was also received Sunday from the congressman's secretary in Washington that four checks have been sent by the federal government for vocational training at the Dallas office to be delivered to Charles L. Prime, another Tulsa soldier. The office there, the telegram states, is keeping in touch with Dallas and will ask them to deliver the checks.

Congressman Howard stated that he has handled 2,500 cases for soldiers during the past two years.

He let here last night, Mrs. Mayes County, who will return to Tulsa Tuesday when he will be pleased to meet soldiers and others who have business that can be transacted with the department through his office.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 24.—With residents of the Wrightsville Beach section threatening him with lynching if caught, John Allen, negro, charged with murderous assault on S. S. Velle, an aged grocer in Vile, was being hunted through the swamps of New Hanover county, where he is believed to be hiding.

Sheriff Jackson and a posse is pursuing Allen, who is accused of stabbing Velle last night after beating him over the head with a bottle. Velle is in a hospital here in a serious condition.

NO RAISE, LONGER HOURS

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 24.—A United States of Russia is now looking for officials here as the most likely possibility among forms of government to follow dissolution of the soviet regime.

Official advice today said the bolshevik breakdown was rapidly continuing in Russia. The movement of decentralization, which began in the breaking away of the Baltic, Caucasus and Siberian states from the mother empire, as a result of disturbed internal conditions, has begun afresh within the territory ruled by the soviets.

The constant increasing surplus of foreign products upon the American markets is retarding American labor. The condition now exists and its seriousness is increasing.

Pittsburgh Won't Play Georgia Tech Football Team Again, Is Decision

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—Charles S. Miller, director of athletics of the University of Pittsburgh tonight gave out a statement that no football football games with Georgia Tech would be scheduled. He explained the decision does not constitute a severance of athletic relations with that institution as the contract between both colleges expired Saturday when Pitt defeated the Southern team, 10 to 2. He added, however, that the decision was arrived at by what he construed as a violation of the contract provisions by the Georgia team at the game Saturday insisting upon permitting three men, who had played more than four years, to take part in the game, and also because the usual eligibility rules referred to by all first class colleges are not observed by Georgia Tech.

The rules provide that every player must be eligible for degree and be a resident of the college for one year prior to joining the team. The men against whom playing at Saturday's game objection was made, said Mr. Miller, are Fischer, tackle; Flowers, captain and halfback; and John Staton, end.

"I have been making a detailed investigation of conditions in the various states," the statement said for two days. "I have been receiving repeated reports to the effect that the national chairman at the stage of the fight is to claim everything in the hope that he can persuade wavering voters to line up with his side. Mr. Hayes my antagonist, has given me several public lessons in this oblique practice lately by claiming everything except a part of the southern states."

"Nevertheless, I am prepared to make a final decision concerning the situation. I shall reserve the names of the states we shall carry because the public would not expect me to acquaint the republican managers with our campaign plan but I do say this."

"Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt will have 222 electoral votes east of the Missouri river and 34 west of the Mississippi, a total of 256 as good as counted. This is within 10 of the number necessary to elect. The republicans have 164 which I regard as good as counted for them. This leaves 111 votes in contest. In the decided swing now in progress toward the democratic state we will carry the majority of this 111, a very comfortable victory indeed."

"This is my prediction. I am confident it will be borne out election day."

NO OFFICIAL LANGUAGE YET

English and French Considered for the League of Nations Council.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 24.—A particular point considered by the council of the league of nations at yesterday's session was whether French or English should be the official language of the permanent international court but no decision was reached.

The council decided to refer back to the supreme council of the allied powers the question of Armenia. It being unable to accept a mandate for same, it was decided to forward those measures that make for the improvement of the standards and health of the people in all signatory nations.

Mr. Gomper's statement was supplemented by a statement from the campaign committee further expressing what was termed a slogan of the League. All elements of the League, the statement declared, could be classed either as "extreme revolutionaries or extreme radicals." The former, it said, oppose the League because the covenant provides the "best check on reaction" while radicals take the ground that it means "a suffering against change."

This position of the radicals, the statement asserted, is a "ridiculously false one" as the League "facilitates revolution, revolutionary development and progress" and provides the "best possible check against turbulent and unhealthy upheaval of destructive character."

A diligent search of the city directory and telephone directory failed last night to reveal the party referred to as the "forwarding line." W. H. G. Michaels, 126 East King street, denied any knowledge of the query addressed to Gomper, as also did W. M. McMichaels, a teaming contractor, residing at 716 West Ninth street.

SANTA FE HEADS IN CITY 2 HOURS

J. Hill once said of him he was the best posted man on transportation subjects in the world. His book, "Railroad Transportation," in the library of every student of the railroad question.

The easterner who visits the west is impressed with the atmosphere of prosperity found generally," said Dr. H. S. Pritchett of New York, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching and director of the Santa Fe. In this connection he emphasized the right for the nation that only yesterday it seems, this domain of natural resources emerged from its territorial environment to take on the duties and responsibilities of statehood. Notwithstanding its rapid advancement, Oklahoma still is in the development stages, and I look for steady progress, especially in agriculture, for many years."

"This is my first visit to Tulsa. I am impressed by the substantial manner in which its business and residence districts have been constructed. Everything has the appearance of permanency, and in addition, beauty, which is unusual in most localities."

Chambers Santa Fe Product.

Edward Chambers, vice-president, is in charge of the traffic department of the Santa Fe. When the government took over the railroads in 1918 he was called to Washington to be director of the division of traffic of the United States Railroad Administration, remaining in that position until the railroads were returned to corporate operation. When the railroads of the country decided to ask the Interstate Commerce Commission for an increase in rates, Mr. Chambers was selected by them to have charge of their case. Vice-President Chambers started his railroad career with the Santa Fe as a boy. His first job was trucking freight in the station at Pueblo, Colorado.

A. G. Wells, vice-president in charge of operations, lately was general manager of the Santa Fe for the Coast Lines, with headquarters at Los Angeles. After the death of President E. P. Ripley and Mr.

256 ELECTORAL VOTES FOR COX

That Number as Good as Counted Says White in Election Forecast

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—George White, chairman of the democratic national committee, in a statement to the press, forecasting the result of the election, predicted that Alex Roosevelt will have 256 electoral votes.

White, however, that the decision was arrived at by what he construed as a violation of the contract provisions by the Georgia Tech.

The rules provide that every player must be eligible for degree and be a resident of the college for one year prior to joining the team.
